Student/Parent Agreement:

I understand that membership in the CCCC is a privilege and will contribute to its success by doing the following:

- Attending all rehearsals in a punctual manner. Less than 90% attendance may affect eligibility to perform at concerts or attend CCCC special events. (An unexcused absence is anything but illness, vacation, and medical emergencies. Performance at any special event will be dependent not only on attendance, but knowledge of music and classroom participation/conduct. Please notify your director as quickly as possible of any conflicts with scheduled rehearsals.
- Planning to be at every performance and special event at the designated call time. Unless arrangements have been made in advance with the director (2 week notice please), tardiness beyond 10 minutes may affect performance status at that event.
- Listening & participate attentively in rehearsals.
- Showing kindness and respect to other CCCC members and directors.
- Demonstrating good etiquette at performances and special events by following directions of director and parent volunteers, listening with respect to other performers, and planning to stay for the entire event when necessary.
- Keeping updated on special events by watching for emails from the CCCC and relaying announcements given during rehearsal. Checking the www.clarkcountychildrenschoir.org website for any announcements/emails I may have missed.
- Committing to the CCCC for the entire season.
- Arranging rides to and from all rehearsals and performances.
